

1 7th Heaven

We've been up to something good started in the special mood of tryin' to find out something new which is the best thing you can do she went home to see her folks I went out for silly talks and too much South African wine we all got our ways and they're mine

And if she could read my mind like a book, then she would find 7th heaven's rivers running dry we could go and kiss this dream good-bye

Alone in bed at night come, heavy sleep, it's alright whatever has become of me it's not what she really wants to see and every time I try to speak there's something in her look that makes me weak

Sunday

Sunday

She's my Sunday and I'm gonna treat her like a Sunday if I ever have the chance to do so let my mind grow wings I'm gonna tell her all the things she likes to hear, that what I'll do

She's my Sunday and sure, I'd like to take her along for the rest of my blue week She's exactly the moment when the first and the last day go dancing cheek to cheek

Take a look at me, can't you see I'm through with all those bad days and those kinds of dull and grey Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and all those Fridays on my mind

She's my Sunday so every Saturday night I'm already feeling grand
And if some people sing that they don't like Mondays
I sure do understand

Take a look at me, tell me I'm not dreaming tell me what I see is true `Cause whatever it takes,
I want to be the one who makes her feel like I'm her Sunday, too

You are lonely, too

Of all those heartaches that I've gone through, this time there wasn't one like this sometimes I didn't even know if I could go on at all I'm glad it's over now

I'm a few steps from heaven, I'm a few steps to hell I don't know where to turn, but nothing's gonna keep me from believing what I hear in the dark
When I'm tired and there is no one else around

You gotta know it isn't worth a word
I'm just a little weary it's plain to see, it's no exception to the way it's meant to be it's only loneliness and you are lonely, too

Among those streets I walk there's some that I fear it's understandable, I put so many wrong steps around you I'm glad it's over now

You can do me a favour, you can call me a fool I'll all right with that, but you're not gonna keep me from believing what I hear in the dark
when I'm tired and there is no one else around

I'm just a little weary
it's plain to see, there's no need for a therapy
it's only loneliness and you are lonely, too when the King's Carol Singers sing Carol King's songs I wanna sing along and

nothing's gonna keep me from believing what I hear in the dark

I'm just a little weary
it's plain to see, it isn't worth the energy

Gloria

Gloria

Here's saying it's me sending you flowers everytime I see you by some chance I doubt there'll be a right place a right time So I'm telling you in advance

Someday you'll know I've got to let it show

Gloria, there is something
I've got to tell you for so long
Gloria, you may, whatever I say Gloria, not get me wrong

You know it's not my will to scare you away and not my style to be so bold but I feel I need to find my words before I get too old

Here's what I say
You got me , anyway

Gloria, there is something
I've got to tell you for so long
Gloria, you may, whatever I say

Goin' ahead

Goin' ahead

What a day she says look out, the sun is up she's all smiles tearin' me out of bed grabs me and my guitar and then startin' the car she says yeah, it's time for going ahead

She says many's the day we been runnin' around content with explanations instead instead of going for things that might let grow you wings
she says yeah it's time for going ahead

This is how it happens when goin' round and round

I remember so well I was addicted to people sharing their views and advice I used to perfectly doubt all that life is about and always think twice

I remember I wouldn't believe my eyes and follow the wrong signs instead now that I'm wide awake pardon me for my mistake it's time for going ahead

Say Yes

Say Yes

So they say watch your step, don't lose your way mind the gap, don't go astray some may say there's a million ways to cry, go and find a reason why

Don't look back, don't stand still and say

Say yes, don't let them tell you no Say yes say yes and don't ever let go Say yes there's a million ways to be
Say yes say yes and set your spirit free

So they say there's always something you can find just keep up your mind
Some may say things will go your way open up your eyes and say yes

Don't look back, don't stand still and say

Say yes before they tell you no
Say yes say yes and don't ever let go
Say yes there's a million ways to be

Some of my Lies are true

You know, sometimes life can make you feel like it's all a game and nothing's for real still you'll never see it through You're running around, staying up all night and you're losing yourself in a futile fight still there's nothing you can do trying to be safe means going back to what you know means going back to feeling blue and you'll find some of my lies are true sometimes some of my lies are true

I'll make you turn, I'll make you see that it's such a waste of energy to try to hold on to my heart so whatever answer you'll get, it's only me I'm stepping back to number two sometimes -- I'm not afraid of what can happen to me this is not trying to do philosophy this is my hand on my heart

So put your finger right on my chest but you'll have three more pointing back on you
sometimes some of my lies are true

10 Running to you

with what I know I feel inside
I'm letting show
I better hide with words I say with tears I gotta hide with all I've gotta give still with my foolish pride

I'm runnin' to you

With all I did 'till finally I found with all those secrets left it all keeps spinning around with all I took along all the way down here with all that still in haze and all I can see clearly now

I'm running to you

Soon you'll find out I won't be here for too long Soon we'll find out somehow the mission went wrong

It's been a long time out on sea feels good here on dry land Say the water's sweet and I'll drink it from your hand

Can't let go

Whatever you think of me whatever you may want me to be there's something you've got to know I can't let go

it's not that I would rather be somebody else instead of me I will let my garden grow
but I can't let go

I know there's nothing to hide from people all by my side somehow they've got a right to know
but I can't let go

there's some kind of state of mind that I will never know and I wonder why I'm close to the overflow
but I can't let go

I can't let go, don't ask me why don't tell because I know It's not like me, don't get me wrong,
I can't let go

It's a case of a first degree personal tragedy unheard of scenario
I can't let go

No matter what so called friends may say they keep on talking, anyway does anyone want to know
I can't let go
